

1915

Personals

Kentucky Law Journal

Follow this and additional works at: <https://uknowledge.uky.edu/klj>

Right click to open a feedback form in a new tab to let us know how this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

Kentucky Law Journal (1915) "Personals," Kentucky Law Journal: Vol. 4 : Iss. 1 , Article 4.

Available at: <https://uknowledge.uky.edu/klj/vol4/iss1/4>

This Comment is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Journals at UKnowledge. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kentucky Law Journal by an authorized editor of UKnowledge. For more information, please contact UKnowledge@lsv.uky.edu.

PERSONALS.

C. C. Wilson, of the class of '14, paid us a short visit last week. He is on his way to Kansas City to practice law.

P. E. Dixon, '13, who is now practicing at Glasgow, came in to see us a few days ago.

W. H. Townsend, of the class of 1912, a leading member of the Lexington bar, was married to Miss Genevieve Johnson, of Kansas City, Mo. Congratulations, Bill!

G. A. Chrisman is practicing law in Louisville and is meeting with great success.

W. L. Eubank, '13, is traveling for the McMillan Book Company.

Rexford Scheittner is assistant in the office of the Hon. Frank Powers, Judge of the Appellate Court of Indiana.

John E. Miller, '12, is enjoying a lucrative practice at Searcy, Ark.

Prof. Dobie, of the University of Virginia, visited the Law Department and lectured to students. His lecture was highly appreciated.

The Baldwin Law Book Company of Louisville has given two prizes to be contended for by the law students this year. One of which is a new edition of Carrol's Statutes in two volumes and the other a volume on Kentucky Words and Phrases as Construed and Defined by the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Our department has strengthened its course so as to require all students who are under the age of twenty-one years when they matriculate to do an amount of work in the College of Arts and Science equal to at least the work of the freshman year. Two additional subjects have been added so that the complete law course embraces fourteen hundred and four class hours.

Mr. Reuben B. Hutchcraft, Jr., who graduated from Transylvania University with the degree of Bachelor of Arts and from the Harvard Law School with the degree of Bachelor of Law, after practicing his profession for four years, has been made a full Professor of the Law Faculty. Mr. Hutchcraft has served one term in the Kentucky Legislature. While in Harvard he served two years on the staff of the Harvard Law Review.

Two thousand volumes have been added to the Law Library since September 1st, and the library now contains about 9,000 volumes. The last contribution contains all the reported cases of 27 of the leading States from the beginning up to the National Reporter System.

The school year opens with unusual promise and bids fair to be by far our most successful year.

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS TO PRACTICE LAW IN KENTUCKY

As Proposed by Judge W. T. Lafferty, Chairman of Committee on Legal Education and Admission to the Bar, of the Kentucky Bar Association.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Section 1. No person shall hereafter be licensed as an attorney or counselor at law in this State except as herein provided for.

Section 2. The Court of Appeals of Kentucky shall from time to time make and adopt such rules and regulations as said court may see proper, fixing moral qualifications of all applicants, and a standard of acquirement both academic and legal, to entitle them to admission to practice law in the courts of this Commonwealth. No applicant, however, shall be under the age of 21 years.